LOCAL ITEMS.

Furniture at H. Grunewald's.
The Manteo sailed from Galveston last night at 11 o'clock, with sixty-six tons of freight and eight passengers. It is advertised to sail from Brazos Santiago on the return trip Saturday morning, August 1.

A small package of hardware from the Peden Iron and Steel company, is unclaimed at the office of the steamships company. The only mark on the package is the name of E. O. Flood of Galveston. The person for whom it is intended can have same by calling for it.

The public school building is undergoing some repairs, and while they are at it, it would be a capital idea to hoe up, rake off and burn the millions of grass burs in the school yard. Those burs are truly a "crying evil." Clean 'em off!

Lost.—A case with gold rimmed spectacles. Lost on Elizabeth street. Finder will please leave at The Herald office and get reward.

Frank Garrigo, agent for the steamship company, is trying to arrange for one fare round trip tickets to Galveston to continue from August 1 to October 1. If he succeeds in getting sufficient encouragement he will put on the excursion at once.

For Men's summer suits, dress shirts, President suspender, and Boston garter, call at H. Grunewald's, opposite the market.

There is one thing the property holders of Brownsville should guard against, and that is the boom prices for real estate, both city and country property. Just now is Brownsville's crucial time. Every day prospectors come here and after looking over the field leave discouraged. Prices are too high already. Put them down reasonably.

I have two bicycles, lady's and gentleman's and one folding Davenport brand new, left; will sell very cheap.
Dr. Scott.

Ice cream, pineapple crystal and lemonade of best qualities can be had at reasonable prices at the ice cream parlor on Elizabeth street adjoining Mrs. Bollack's every day from 4:30 to 10:30 p. m.
ANNIE FOSTER.

Visit of Sap Officials.

The party of officials of the San Antonio and Aransas Pass railroad, who have been in the city since yesterday, have arranged to return to San Antonio this afternoon. From a social point of view their visit has been all that was expected, no doubt. If they came with the view of making any propositions to the people of this city, they evidently concluded that the time was inopportune, as The Herald reporter was unable to learn anything definite of this nature.

Hamilton-Brown shoes, all styles and John B. Stetson hats at Grunewald's.

A NEW GAME.

Have you played the new game? It is called Christianity. An exchange tells about it thus: "A new game called Christianity is being played in certain parts of the city. The girls get on one side and are the Christians, the boys get on the other side and are the heathens. Then the heathens embrace Christianity—Gonzales Inquirer."

E. L. Kowalski Talks of Lott's Road.

Credit For the Line Is Given to the Untiring Efforts of the Brownsville Herald.

Monterey News.

E. L. Kowalski, representing B. Rosenberg and Son of New Orleans, is in the city for a few days from his home in Brownsville, Texas, and yesterday talked of the work now being done by the Lott people in the building their Brownsville extension from Sinton, a small town on the Texas-Mexican railroad.

"They recognize," said he, "that the sooner they build it the better it will be for all parties concerned, and to this end are pushing as fast as possible. Engineers are already in the field making an airline between the two points and following them are several hundred men grading and filling and otherwise preparing for the track. The credit for getting this road to Brownsville can only be given to the Brownsville Herald. That paper by its frequent recurrences to the subject wrought the people up to a point where they offered the required inducements and thus secured the road. And not content with the one road, they are reaching out for the Aransas Pass and pretty soon there will be a race between the two as to which will reach Brownsville first. When I left the people were jubilant and were already planning for an elaborate celebration for the one that first pulled a train into the city."

STATE SCHOOL TEXT BOOKS.

Austin, Texas, July 25.—It is asserted by representatives of school book publishing houses who are here that plank of the Democratic platform which recommends changes should be made in the books now in use is superseded by the action of the Legislature in passing the text book law.

They say that the Legislature comes nearer representing the wishes of the people of the State than the platform of the Democratic party and that no text book law would have been passed had it not been deemed best that changes should be made in the school books now in use.
